The Judges decided in Ward's favor. Time not given. The affair caused much excitement, and Sam. Collyer offered to match Raymond again for any amount of money the Wards can raise. THE CATTLE DISEASE.

Death of Hundreds of Cattle from the Illinois Pestilence—What we Eat—Who is Meat Inspector and What are His Duties?

Some days ago attention was called in the editorial colums of the GAZETTE to the prevalence of a fatal disease amongst the cattle of Illinois, and the warning was given that the peitilence must necessarily spread by rail to our city. The anticipations of the editor have been more than verified, for the awful pestilence has reached our city and caused an alarm never before felt in this locality by both the consumers of meat and the owners of stock. On Friday last a drove of two hundred cattle were shipped to this point by a prominent Illinois stock dealer, and of that number thirty-nine died on their way hither and sixty-seven perished in the East Liberty stock yards. Nor is this all. Of a smaller drove shipped to Pittsburgh, a number died on their way and ten fell victims to the fatal disease at East Liberty on Saturday last, while, with not a single exception, the animals embraced in the drove were more or less diseased. Our reporter visited the principal stock yards of Allegheny and Pittsburgh yesterday, in order to arrive at some definite knowledge of the extent of the pestilence, but drovers and others were so very reticient about the matter that he had to depend much on the statements of outsiders for the alarming facts just stated. It is not known how many of these diseased animals have been slaughtered and retailed by our butchers to their patrons, but that there have been many customers so imposed upon is amply evidenced in the fact that hundreds of families on last Sunday sat down to the dinner table with rank, foul-smelling and diseased meat before them. We are not alarmists, but are anxious to let our readers know that a horrible and fatal cattle disease has been brought to our city from the West, and there is no knowing how disastrous may be the consequences. It is hardly safe during its prevalence to taste fresh beef, and too much prudence cannot be exercised in the purchase of this almost necessary article of food. True, the city has a Meat Inspector, but from inquiry yesterday we are led to believe that that officer has failed to properly discharge his duties; that the office seems to have been regarded as a mere sinecure, and that the interests of the public have been frightfully disregarded. In search of him yesterday, our reporter found that he had no established office or headquarters, and that, at some stalls at least, in the market, he was an almost unknown city official. No alarm was sounded by him, and were it not for the industry of the local reporters, perhaps, the community would not to-day have been advised of the terrible pestilence raging amongst the cattle imported to our city from the western States. Councils certainly did not create this office for the purpose of paying a salary to any individual for duty half performed or performed not at all.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, with a prudence and foresight worthy of commendation, yesterday refused to transport to the Eastern cities any part of the stocks afflicted with the contagious disease. This course is eminently proper, and may possibly save our friends east of the Allegheny mountains from the infliction of a cattle pestilence, which seems imminent in this neighborhood. At the Allegheny Cattle Yards we could learn nothing of the presence of the disease, although we believe that it must likewise prevail there. The drovers naturally cloud the matter over and conceal the truth, as they are largely interested in the suppression of facts, and seek to dispose of their stocks before full knowledge of the extent of the disease is made known.

Incidentally we learned last evening that the City Meat Inspector, aroused to his duty by the general alarm felt and expressed throughout the city on this subject, visited the stock yards yesterday and condemned some three hundred head of cattle infected with the contagious disease. How true this rumor is we know not, but feel convinced that such a proceeding would have been warranted and proper. We hope that measures will at once be taken to dispose of all the cattle brought to this market having the least sign of disease, that an impending calamity may be averted and the public health not made subject to great peril. It is a matter which will justify an immediate meeting of the City Councils, to take some action looking to the suppression of the evil and preventing its operating to the detriment of the farmers owning stock about us and the general public health. The danger is present, and to avert it should be a matter of concern to every reader. Be careful from whom you purchase meat, in order to be sure that it is not full of disease. We have sounded the warning, and let the wise take heed.

Resolutions of Respect.

A special meeting of the Pittsburgh Petroleum Association, was held August 4th, at their rooms, H. M. Long, Esq., in the Chair, and A. T. Brooks acting as Secretary. The President, H. M. Long, stated that the meeting was called for the purpose of passing some resolutions of respect to the memory of Robert Lafferty. He remarked that Mr. Lafferty's death was the first which had occurred in the membership of the Association, and proceeded to speak of the excellent character of deceased. At the close of Mr. Long's remarks, the following preamble and resolutions were read, which, after appropriate remarks by Messrs. R. H. Waring and J. A. McKee, were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Almighty in his inscrutible Providence to remove from our midst our friend and fellow member, Robert Lafferty, therefore, be it

Resolved, That with feelings of heartfelt sorrow we bow submissively to the will of Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That we tender our sympathies to his bereaved family in their irreparable loss of a kind husband and father.

Resolved, That we bear testimony to the uniform kindness, urbanity and integrity of deceased, and feel that his loss will be deeply felt by all who knew him.

Resolved, That as a token of respect to the memory of the deceased and of his many virtues, we will attend his funeral in a body.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the daily papers, spread upon the minutes of the Association and a copy be sent to the family of deceased.

On motion, adjourned.

Last night there were not less than fifty men and boys lounging on the broad steps of the municipal buildings in Allegheny. These persons are there every night and are never sparing in their remarks on passers by. We have seen shrinking women go to the postoffice to deposit a letter, and because of this mass of men on the steps turn and walk two squares and drop the missive in one of the street boxes. As this congregation assembles every night, not a dozen yards from the Mayor's office, and as Mayor Drum has repeatedly asserted his determination to put a stop to street loafing, we recommend to him this brilliant and easy field of operations for a decisive August campaign.

MORTGAGES.

Same day eleven mortgages were filed of record.

Washington Topics and Gossip.

On Monday the Postoffice officials put forth a partial contradiction of a statement concerning the fiscal deficiency of that department. The Chronicle's special says "there is the best possible authority for saying that the main allegation in that statement, which was that the deficit in the Postoffice Department for the fiscal year ending June 30th would reach the unprecedented sum of eight million dollars, is rather below than above the mark."

The civil powers of the military commanders have ceased in South Carolina, and the various officers charged with the administration of civil affairs have been discontinued and the employes and clerks discharged. The troops will be concentrated at a few stations, as has been done in the third military district.

The Secretary of the Republican State Central Committee of California writes to the Congressional Republican Executive Committee that the Republicans of the Pacific Coast are making preparations for an energetic canvass, and that they believe Grant and Colfax will carry that State by ten thousand majority.

Commissioner Rollins, Secretary Welles and other prominent officials have gone North to benefit their health.

It has been directed that, as Gen. Steadman's resignation of the office of Collector of Internal Revenue at New Orleans was accepted to take effect when his successor was appointed and confirmed, and the Senate having failed to confirm the successor, therefore Gen. Steadman has continued to be and is now Collector. Upon this decision Gen. Steadman returns to New Orleans to resume control of his office.

Judge Matthews and James F. Torrence, of Cincinnati, are being urged for the place of Commissioner of Internal Revenue, in case Gov. Cox declines again. Secretary McCulloch, Mr. Rollins, Mr. Cooke and many others have joined in urging Gov. Cox to accept Mr. Rollins position on the ground of patriotic usefulness mainly, and the President is anxiously awaiting Cox's answer to the requests of his friends. If he still declines, the President will ask the opinion of the Attorney General on his right to take the resignation of Mr. Rollins as absolute and unconditional.

The Secretary of War, in a letter to the President, assures him that enough troops will remain in the South to suppress any riotous demonstrations on the part of the whites or blacks, if they are properly assisted by the local authorities. They will only be issued, however, upon proper application to the Generals commanding the districts and when their services are absolutely necessary.

Mr. Watts, the Philadelphia Radical lawyer, has been officially notified of his appointment and confirmation as Minister to Austria. He accepts, and will leave for Vienna early next month.

Admiral Semmes called upon the President and assured him that the whites of the South opposed the Congressional reconstruction plan, and that if the new electoral college bill is passed he expects a new rebellion.

General Rousseau will not go to New Orleans until after the first frost.

Senator Sumner is arranging a massive volume of his speeches for publication.

Mr. Johnson does not believe there will be any necessity for a session of Congress next month.

Another large batch of clerks are to be discharged from the Treasury Department next week.

SCHOOLMASTER CUPID.

BY JOHN G. SAXE.

To Jupiter was born a son
Of rarest genius; such an one
In wit and beauty as, indeed,
From such a source might well proceed.
But most his sire the son displayed
In that, a courtier ready-made
He knew instinctive, all the arts
That serve to gain and govern hearts.
But Jove would teach this favorite son
Whate'er by study might be won,
And so, obedient to his nod,
Around him came each lesser god,
And all were bidden to impart
Whate'er of Science or of Art
They knew; that so the boy might be
Well versed in all that such as he,
The Thunderer's offspring, should acquire
To grace the son of such a sire.
The summoned gods no sooner heard
Their sovereign's scheme, than all concurred
In promising the best they can
To carry out so wise a plan.
"For me," said Mars, "I'll teach him all
That suits a soldier brave and tall;
And warlike arts the lad shall know
That he may triumph o'er the foe
On battle-fields, and win a name
To swell the the loudest trump of Fame!"
"And I," said Phœbus, "be it mine
To teach him eloquence divine,
And music, such as moved the trees
When Orpheus played his melodies!"
"And I," said Vulcan, "will impart
My cunning in mechanic art,
So that the lad with matchless skill,
May fashion weapons at his will."
"And I," said Hercules, "will show
How once I slew the Nemean foe,
And teach the boy to quell
The Hydra-vices; and compel
The monster, Luxury, to fly
Abashed before his flaming eye!"
Said Cupid, speaking last of all
As seemed befitting one so small,
"All arts are mine—and all I know
Will I upon the lad bestow!"
"Well spoken, Cupid," answered then
The smiling king of gods and men—
"Not Phœbus, Mars, or Hercules
Can do the feats which thou, with ease
Performest daily. Be it thine
To educate the son of mine;
For who of all the gods above
In strength and wisdom equals Love?

—The Far West has been the most fashionable of all summer resorts this year. If to see notable men is the object of the summer traveller, then this summer the place to go has certainly been the Plains which stretch across the Continent beyond Omaha. NORWEGIAN EMIGRANTS, to the number of four thousand, are about to settle in Wisconsin. The lands, in different sections of the State, have been selected for them, and an agent has gone to Norway to gather the families and make the necessary arrangements for sending them to this country. The parties come from the northern part of Norway, are hardy, industrious people, who will soon make for themselves homes, and will be a most valuable acquisition to the population. According to the census of 1860, Wisconsin had residing within its limits 21,442 out of the 43,995 Norwegians residing in the United States. There are one or more papers published in that language in Wisconsin, and there are also many churches of the Lutheran denomination where the services are conducted in Norwegian.

NO LONGER LOOKING FOR A MESSIAH.—At the Convention of Hebrew Covenanters in New York, on Thursday, an oration was delivered by Mr. Greenebaum, who declared that the purpose of the Order was to elevate the Hebrew race, make them good citizens, and to add their quota to a Godlike humanity. The return of the Jews and the advent of Messiah, he declared, are no longer the tests of Judaism. The faith and principles of the denomination are comprised in the words: "Hear, oh, Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord; and thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, mind, soul, strength, and thy neighbor as thyself;" and "Do unto others as you would have others to do to you." This declaration was received with general approval.

Gold Closed at 145⅝@146¼.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, August 4, 1868.

Sterling quiet, with 5¾@10¼ per cent. advance in gold, which induced importers to postpone remittances. Gold firmer, opening at 145⅝ and closing at 146½. The exports to-day were $82,000. One million dollars of the Alaska gold expected will be shipped to-morrow.

BORDER STATE BONDS

Firmer. Old Tennessees, 65; new, 64; old North Carolinas, 70½; Missouris 93¼. The great feature in stocks to-day was a further break in Erie to 56¼. The operations betoken a panicky feeling, and the general belief is that Vanderbilt and Drew have sold out to break up the clique and buy in cheap to control the next election. The lease of the Northern Jersey Railroad is also used as a point for a decline. The whole list fell off sympathetically, New York Central touching 128½. The market subsequently rallied and Erie reached 60½; and Central, 131. These prices however were not maintained, the market declining and closing unsettled. Rock Island was the strongest stock. Miscellaneous and express shares are dull.

RIVER NEWS.

The river, as we predicted, is falling steadily at this point with seven and a half feet in the channel by the Monongahela pier marks yesterday afternoon. The weather continues cloudy and unsettled, with every appearance of more rain.

The Bellvernon was to have left for St. Louis last evening, and it is said that she would have an excellent trip.

The Kate Robinson, Capt. Marsh Hays, did not get off for Cincinnati and Louisville as expected yesterday, but will positively leave to-day.

The "run" of coal on the present rise is estimated at 1,255,000 bushels, 435,000 of which go to Louisville and the balance, 820,000 bushels, to Cincinnati.

No rise in the Allegheny as yet, only eighteen inches reported at Oil City yesterday.

—Capt. W. Dean is at Cincinnati looking after the Camelia.

—One thousand eight hundred tons freight were shipped from Louisville last week for points below.

—It cost the Mattie Burns, from St. Louis, $200 to lighten and dray her freight from Portland to Louisville.

—The little steamer Veteran was sold by the U. S. Marshal at Gallipolis on Saturday, to Wm. H. Billings for $1,250.

—The Argonaut No. 2, left Louisville on Saturday for New Orleans, with 150 tons iron for the bridge over the Rio Grande.

—Capt. Dunham has contracted with Stewart & Barmore, Jeffersonville, for the hull of a new boat for the New Orleans trade, her capacity to be 1,000 tuns.

—A Cincinnati telegram under date of yesterday says: The recent rise in the Ohio river has brought out all the first class packets. The double decker, America, and the General Lytle, of the United States Mail Line, resumed their trips between Cincinnati and Louisville yesterday.

—The Nashville Republican Banner, of Friday says: Heavy rains above are reported, and all the tributary streams are full. Caney Fork boats report a ten foot rise. The river here is still swelling, with three feet on the shoals. The Katie Morrison arrived from Paducah, and will load for the mountains.

—The New York with two barges in tow, left Cincinnati for Memphis on Saturday, with the best trip that has left Cincinnati this year. She had about 700 tons, 300 of which was for New Orleans—the whole trip at an average of 35a40 cents per hundred. The boat was drawing 3¼ feet, and the barges 32 inches large. Pilots, James Madison and I. D. Gaugh.

—Up to 10 o'clock Wednesday, the Tennessee river had rised ten feet, plumb water, and was still swelling at the rate of half an inch per hour, when our informant left. Fears were entertained that the fine crops and the creek bottoms would be overflowed, and badly damaged. The rains of Saturday and Sunday nights were among the heaviest ever known in that region.

—The Ida Rees arrived from Fort Benton at Cincinnati on Sunday evening, and went to the L. M. R. R. elevator to discharge 700 sacks corn. Including this, she had about 100 tons freight for Cincinnati. The Ida Rees is commanded by Capt. Geo. W. Albert, a young man only 22 years of age, and her clerk is Mr. Geo. D. Strong, who was once a newspaper reporter in St. Louis. She made in 68 days the trip from St. Louis to Fort Benton and back, one of the most successful trips of the season.

—The body of Wm. Keiser, who jumped overboard from the steamer Dexter, when she was sinking at Twelve-Pole last Monday, was found below there on Wednesday, and an inquest held resulted in a verdict "that the deceased came to his death by causes unknown to the jury." Mr. K. was a young merchant residing in West Virginia. Shortly after the inquest the father and brothers of deceased arrived and identified the body. The Catlettsburg Tribune says the grief of the father was most painful to witness.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 145⅞@146⅛.

THE COUNTRY is insulted and disgraced by having Admiral SEMMES, a paroled rebel, declaring even in the presence of the President, that another civil war will occur unless Congress shall do thus and so. A rigid President, instead of listening to such stuff from him, might order him under arrest and send him before a Military Commission as having forfeited his parole.

THE Kentucky rebels openly declared, in the recent canvass of that State, that the statement in the New York platform, that the right of secession had been forever settled and condemned, was a lie. Accordingly they again occupied the old Democratic ground of '61, which justified secession and rejected the idea of coercion. This frank protest, against the juggling deceits of the platform, no doubt contributed much to the rebel success in the election last Monday.

BEFORE THE REBELLION, the receipts of the Postoffice Department from the Southern States fell regularly short of defraying the expenses of carrying and delivering the mails. This deficit was made up either by excess of receipts over expenditures in the Northern States, or by appropriations made by Congress—commonly the latter. When the war broke out the Department became self-sustaining. Upon the termination of hostilities and the re-extension of mail service throughout the Southern portion of the Union, the old experience is renewed; there is a large deficit in that Department, the receipts failing to cover expenses by a number of millions of dollars.

THE patriotic sentiment which animates all true American hearts is manifesting itself clearly in the unanimous alacrity with which citizens, who have been heretofore indifferent to the importance of current political questions, are now arraying themselves decidedly on the side of the Union. These questions present issues which so directly and plainly concern the dearest interests of the people, and the prosperity of our institutions, that no sincere and thoughtful lover of his country can hesitate in his duty of supporting an imperilled Constitution. The doubtful no longer doubt, and the neutral are now prompt to come forward and be enrolled among the known and active friends of the Republic. The latest illustration of this is given by the Mahonoy (Pa.,) Gazette, which abandons its independent position, and runs up the GRANT and COLFAX colors, giving good reasons for its acknowledgement of the duty of the hour.

CARL SCHURZ.

We learn with great pleasure that this distinguished orator will speak in this city, in German, on Tuesday evening, August 25th. This information comes direct from the Chairman of the State Committee. Our German Republican friends will make all needful arrangements for the meeting.

Gen. SCHURZ will go East, from here, to make other addresses, in German, in the Eastern part of the State. On his return he will address his Republican friends in English. The time has not yet been fixed.

THE CATTLE-PLAGUE—BEWARE!

When, some days since, the GAZETTE invited public attention to the existence of a highly contagious and fatal pestilence among the cattle of Illinois, and suggested the great danger of its communication, through the rapid facility of the railways, to the herds of Ohio and Pennsylvania, it is possible that our warnings were received in some quarters with indifference and in others with absolute incredulity. But we have now to state, for the information of the people, not only in these cities, but of the country at large, that, of one drove of two hundred cattle shipped from Illinois last week, a number were found to be dying at Crestline on the 1st and 2d, and were put out to die, while the rest—well, sick, dying and dead,—were brought on Monday night, the 3d, to the East Liberty stock-yards, where the dead carcasses were buried, the entire loss out of the drove being sixty-seven head up to yesterday morning. We have further to state that, from another drove brought from Illinois by the same dealer, whose name we have, ten head died at the East Liberty yards on Saturday last. The later and larger drove was intended for the Eastern markets, but the Pennsylvania Railroad Company yesterday refused to receive the infected residue, and these one hundred and thirty-three head, or so many of them as remain alive, are now in or near the East Liberty yards, infecting not only the yards, but the whole neighborhood. Some disposition must be made of them, and whether they are to be scattered in our pasture-fields, spreading the contagion through the fields of Allegheny and of Western Pennsylvania, or whether they are to be sent forward to curse with their plague some other locality, we are unable to state.

Nor have we any reliance that our population may not be fed upon the meat of these cattle, which have taken the infection, but may not exhibit it by external signs when slaughtered. Such meat is plainly unsound and unfit for human consumption. We hope and believe that no butcher in our markets would knowingly deal in stock so infected, but the trouble is that they cannot discriminate and so reject cattle which have the poisonous virus in their veins, except they reject all that have been exposed to the contagion, either in the distant fields of Illinois or Indiana, upon the cars or in the yards. Nor, in the earlier stages of the disease, would the most careful inspection of the meat be sufficient to disclose its poisoned character. The public would first discover its unsoundness by its injurious and perhaps fatal effects upon the human system.

We are fully aware of the gravity of our statements, and have taken the utmost care to be able to speak by the facts. We are aware that these statements must have a very serious effect upon private and corporate interests, as well as upon the public mind. But we should be unfaithful to the highest duty of journalism, were we to suppress the facts, or in omitting those suggestions and admonitions which are absolutely required by a just regard for the public health, and for the critically imperilled welfare of the herds of Pennsylvania.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company indicates the true and only remedy for the threatened mischief, in its refusal yesterday to forward the living remains of the infected drove Eastward. Let the Company adhere to that, as they may wish to preserve the regions of the interior and of Eastern Pennsylvania from the ravages of the pestilence. It is the plain duty of the Railway Companies connecting from the West to adopt the same precautionary restriction, by declining to transport any infected stock one mile beyond any point where the existence of the disease shall be discovered. This, as an approximate measure, will contribute much to the public safety. We hope the companies, the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago, and the Panhandle, will instantly take such order as to prevent the recurrence of the case, as above, where the presence of the fatal pestilence, discovered as it was at Crestline, should have been followed by the instant discharge of the entire drove from its cars. The railway companies owe it to the public and to themselves to take these precautions immediately, and of the most efficacious character.

And we call upon the City Councils of these cities to take immediately proper measures for the protection of the public health in this matter. Inspectors should be fully authorized to investigate the condition of every drove coming from the West to this market, and the presence of one single infected animal should cause the confiscation and destruction of the entire lot. The pecuniary interests of any individual should not be considered for a moment in the protection of the public health. If there be any drover who persists in the effort to "shove off" his pestilence-stricken cattle upon this community, (we hope there are none such) let him be taught the superior consideration of the public safety by the summary judgment of the officers appointed for our protection.

Perhaps, great as may be the danger to the health of our people, it is more likely to be effectually guarded against than the other peril, which threatens the herds of all this region. This contagion is virulent and ineradicable except by the destruction of the animal diseased, and must continue until the frosts. We dread to contemplate the extreme probability of its communication to the stock owned by our farmers. The most stringent precautions are therefore demanded against the dispersion of the infected survivors of these pest-stricken droves through our pasture fields. We are not able to procure, now at the moment when we need it, such precautionary legislation as will ensure protection against the spread of the disease in this way, but we can and do implore every farmer in the country to exclude from his fields every head of stock brought in from abroad. Let every farmer take good care to have nothing to do with them.

Our railway companies, as already suggested, can stamp out the Eastward march of this pestilence at once if they will. It is in the power of the two companies connecting with the West to save our people entirely harmless from this mischief, by such precautions as we have indicated. The community appeals to them to take these precautions, and has a right to demand that the appeal shall be heeded.

POLITICAL RINGS.

From all sides complaints are heard that cliques or rings of politicians exert large measures of control over public affairs, in municipal, state and national government. Facts abundantly sustain the accusation. A good many citizens conclude, therefore, that there is nothing better for them to do than to abstain scrupulously from active participation in many of the prime duties of citizenship. The facts, as stated, or as statable, do not justify the conclusion thus deduced from them.

In most of the major departments of business there are just as many cliques or rings as there are in politics, and these resort, not unfrequently, if not commonly, to as unscrupulous methods for the attainment of the ends they have in view as it ever entered into the heads or hearts of politicians to conceive. Sagacious and self-reliant men do not therefore determine to keep out of finance, commerce and manufactures. On the contrary, they resolve manfully to go in, to act parts under the guidance of their own judgments and moral convictions, to deserve success, and to compel it.

See too, how many cliques and rings there are in the theologic world; what war they make upon each other; what criminations and recriminations are hurled hither and thither; what minings and counterminings. Do sedate and candid men thence infer that there is no reality in religion, and that they will hold persistently aloof from all the phases thereof? By no means. They do not hesitate to accept the conclusion that religion, separate and apart, over and above, the jealousies, envies, hatreds and uncharitablenesses engendered in connection with it, most vitally concerns the well-being of every man and woman; and that the path of duty and safety is to be found in meeting fully the responsibilities arising out of it.

There are rings in politics—just as in all other departments of human activity, and no more—and there will continue to be so long as honors or emoluments exist in connection therewith; and that will be to the end of time. Under monarchical governments the rings are, perhaps, fewer in number than under popular institutions. At all events, they do not embrace so many individuals; politics being regarded as the exclusive domain of a few privileged classes. But these classes make up in greater rapacity all they lack in numbers; which explains why the governing classes of Europe are so opulent. Find an example in the BONAPARTE family, which came to the administration of the French government in 1848, so poor that they had to borrow the money needful to pay transportation from London, across the Channel, to Paris, and are now rich to repletion.

In republics rings are more numerous, and watch and circumvent each other more effectually. One ring, if it cannot plunder or otherwise misrule, often prevents by its vigilance another ring from doing so, and thus performs a public service. But, however, political rings may deport themselves, they are, and will be, despite all grumbling and growling that may be indulged in concerning them. As well attempt to drive rings out of Wall street, or out of railway management, as out of the field of politics.

What the people have to do is to smash the arrangements of political rings, when they fail to do that which is fair and right. We are pleased to observe a disposition growing up among the Republican masses in different parts of this Commonwealth to use this prerogative. But then the masses should be sure to do their duty in the premises before starting to take vengeance on rings. Under the system of nominating candidates by direct vote of all the party, small scope is left for the manipulation of managers. If the mill fails to turn out good grists it must be the fault of the people who do not attend to the running of it.

The application of these general remarks to the condition of affairs in this city at the present moment is so obvious, that we need do no more than suggest it.

THERE is no need for multiplying the proofs that the political designs of the Democratic party are thoroughly and heartily rebel and revolutionary. The evidence is not only conclusive, but, being accepted as such, the Northern journals of the party no longer attempt to deny the incendiary character of their platform. But it will do no harm to put on the record all the developments which concur in establishing the complete concert of action between our own Copperheads and the violent rebels whom HAMPTON, FORREST and VANCE represented. Here is Ex-Governor PERRY, of South Carolina, whose letter to the Democratic meeting for ratification, at Columbia, the other day, says:

> With such men as Horatio Seymour and Frank P. Blair as our standard-bearers, standing on the true, patriotic, and sound Democratic platform adopted by the New York Convention, we must, and will, be successful in the coming Presidential election. * * * The platform of the Democratic party, adopted in New York, declares immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution. Amnesty for all past offenses, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens. * * * The platform declares the reconstruction acts of Congress to be unscrupulous and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void. The New York Convention was harmonious in its action throughout its session. There was no difference of opinion on any subject between Northern and Southern delegates. They were united as a band of patriots whose sole object was to rescue their Government from usurpers and tyrants, and oppressors, and restore the Constitution and the Republic, in all their original purity and freedom, to the American people. The Southern delegates determined to be reticent in the Convention, and take no prominent part in its proceedings; while the Northern delegates said to them, "On the subject of your peculiar grievence and oppressions, draw your own platform, and make it as strong as you please, and we will endorse it."

OUTCROPPING NATIVISM.

The latent Nativism that prevails throughout a large portion of the Democratic party manifests itself in many newspaper comments upon the individuals selected for important offices in the reconstructed States. It is charged that a large proportion of these men are "carpet-baggers," that is, men who were not born in the States which they have been selected to represent in either House of Congress, and so on. Elaborate tables have been prepared and published to show that these Senators or Representatives should be credited to the States or Countries in which they were born, instead of being regarded as fairly eligible to serve as Representatives for the commonwealths or districts from which they are actually accredited. This is is the same as insisting that Mr. STEVENS is in no proper sense a Representative from Pennsylvania, but from Vermont, and that Mr. CONNESS is not a Senator from California, but from Ireland.

This is the sublimation of Nativism. It maintains in effect, that a man has no right to political promotion and conspicuity except in the particular locality where he happened to be born. This manifestation accords with the fact, widely known, that Know-Nothingism, as a political movement, had its origin in the Democratic ranks, and drew therefrom most of the vitality and force it exhibited during its transient success.

The Southern States are destined to be regenerated, politically and commercially, but an influx of population from the North and from Europe. Strong in the capacity and will to perform all manner of things which it is worth while for prosperous communities to have done, these men cannot fail of exerting commanding influence and filling prominent positions; and no amount of cavils that they were born and reared elsewhere will either deter them in their endeavors or baffle them in the pursuit of their laudable ambitions.

THE Northern Copperheads are encouraging another rebellion now, as they instigated the last bloody revolt. It is well enough to recall the bitterness with which, in 1860 and '61, they charged, in the same language as now, the responsibility for the imminent revolt, not upon the treasonable designs of their leaders, but upon the very efforts of loyalty to uphold the endangered flag, and it is well to remember that, then as now, the same support and sympathy were pledged to the rebels by the Democracy of these Northern States. For example, in January 1861, a Democratic State Convention in Ohio declared as follows:

> Resolved, That two hundred thousand Democrats of Ohio send to the people of the United States, both North and South, greeting: and when the people of the North shall have fulfilled their duties to the Constitution and the south, then, and not till then, will it be proper for them to take into consideration the question of the right and propriety of coercion.

And the resolution was backed by the Cincinnati Enquirer with the significant remark that "the nation must rely upon the stalwart arms of the Democracy." Five States in the South had then already adopted ordinances of secession, and proclaimed their determination to maintain separation in arms. Yet the Ohio Democracy, so far from coming to the rescue of the Constitution, were sending their sympathy and greetings to these rebels. And they talk in the same way now. Let us have some hope that they will again, as before, find discretion to be the better part of valor, and wisely forbear making good their incendiary offer when the pinch comes. Let them discover, as we think they will, that loyalty is stronger than party among the Democratic masses, and they will again back down as they did before, when, seven months after adopting the resolution above quoted, the Democratic representatives in Congress from Ohio, unanimously voted that "the war was forced upon the country by the Southern disunionists, in revolt against the Constitutional Government." It was the loyal uprising of the people irrespective of party, which thus, in seven short months, brought the rebel sympathizers of the North to their senses. They are apparently courting a repetition of this experience.

SOUTH CAROLINA, in the olden time, and up to the breaking out of the rebellion, was regarded as the model Democratic State. In all that period it was never known that the people of that Commonwealth chose by ballot their Presidential Electors. They were appointed for them by the Legislature. We never admired this method and do not now. But the Democrats did not allow it to disturb their composure. Recently it has been proposed to have this plan adopted in all the seceding States. Admiral SEMMES sees in this proposal abundant cause for a fresh war. Doubtless many men of his antecedents are like minded. Why didn't they make war on South Carolina for sustaining this system? Was it because so long as South Carolina used it their ideas and purposes were promoted thereby? Unquestionably. And they are enraged at any application of this plan which does not fall in with and minister to their present desire. It must be confessed there is a good deal of human nature in this.

OF the great foreign bankers, the ROTHSCHILDS, a foreign correspondent says:

> James Rothschild, the head of the Parisian house, holds hardly any American bonds at all, but his brother at Frankfort holds, perhaps, one-fourth of the whole amount sent to the European continent, partly as his own property, and partly in trust for other parties, such as the Duke of Nassau, the Elector of Hesse, the King of Hanover, the Grand Duke of Mecklenberg-Streiltz, and others. No large Hamburg banking house holds as many American bonds, although the bulk of them is owned in Northern Germany.

BELMONT, Chairman of the National Democratic Committee, is the American agent of these ROTHSCHILDS, and was the active financial manager of the late New York Convention. Let the friends of the late Mr. PENDLETON reflect upon the unlikelihood that BELMONT would consent to anything that should damage his European employers, and they will begin to have a glimpse of the reasons why Young Greenbacks was laid on the shelf.

"SPAIN made the great mistake of encouraging miscegenation."—Pittsburgh Post.

Is the Democratic ticket of Allegheny county constructed upon Spanish principles? And will the same hybrid types result?

THE malignity with which the Southern rebel Democracy are everywhere proscribing the colored voters who uphold reconstruction, refusing to employ them and boasting that they will soon starve them into submission to their old masters, is faithfully illustrative of the bigoted, aristocratic spirit which is the essential element of what these people call Democracy, North or South. The lordly rebel who attempts to starve black voters into submission, treats the "poor white trash" of his neighborhood in precisely the same way. Let it be understood that this sort of aristocratic argument is properly applicable to the poor laborer, and how long will it be before they introduce it into the labor markets of the North? The Democrat who justifies this coercion of the poor voter into submission to the will of his rich employer, must either excuse it because the laborer's skin is black, or he must accept the principle as of universal adaptation, in our own State as well as in Georgia. If it is right for the poor black man, why not for the poor white voter? If it be, in either case, an infamous invasion of the poor man's right, what shall we think of the Democracy which practises or even excuses it? Shall a man's vote depend on his employer's wishes? Does the color of the skin make a difference with the principle? Does personal freedom mean one thing in South Carolina, and another in Pennsylvania or Ohio? Democratic reader, when you hear any man justifying this sort of interference with any poor man's vote, mark him for an aristocrat and tyrant at heart, no matter how much Democracy (!) he carries upon his tongue!

DEMOCRACY IN ARKANSAS.

A despatch of the 28th, from Little Rock, to the Chicago Journal, after describing the mob which attempted to disperse a GRANT meeting on the 26th, but was prevented by the firm front of the Union men, and the prompt interference of the authorities, thus proceeds:

The red-mouthed rebels held a meeting here to-day to indorse the nominations of Seymour and Blair. The principal orator was C. S. Cameron, who was a member of the New York Convention. He said, "In sixty days from the adjournment of the Convention five hundred thousand soldiers would be organized into companies, regiments and brigades, and army corps, ready if need be, to march to Washington." He recommended every secesh to take the oath required by the Reconstruction law—that it was unconstitutional, and not binding, and he closed by saying: "We will take this oath all over the State, and send three votes into the Electoral College, and three Representatives to Congress, and if Ben. Wade does not count our vote, then comes the military organization, with General Slocum at its head, all armed and equipped." Universal cheering followed.

HON. JOHN S. CARLISLE, formerly of West Virginia, and United States Senator under the restored Government, now residing in Baltimore, declares emphatically for Grant and Colfax, and will take the stump for them. There are few more effective popular speakers in the country than Mr. Carlisle.

IS YOUR DISEASE RHEUMATISM?

Many persons, supposing they are suffering from this disease, have applied Linaments, Plasters and other Rheumatic Remedies without obtaining any relief, when in fact the cause of pain is a derangement of the Kidneys. These are small organs, but very important, and any obstruction or interference with its functions are indicated by pain in the back and loins, languor and weakness, difficulty in avoiding and unnatural color of the urine. A Diuretic should at once be resorted to.

DR. SARGENT'S

THE BILIOUS SEASON.

Seventy-five per cent. of the population of the United States are more or less bilious at this season. The midsummer sun stirs up the bile as certainly as it evolves miasma from the stagnant pools. It is of the utmost importance, therefore, to check the tendency of the liver to diseased action with that incomparable anti-bilious specific—HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Neglect the early symptoms, and the chances are that they will result in remittent fever, fever and ague, or jaundice. It is presumed that nobody deliberately desires to risk an attack from any one of these. But carelessness may be as disastrous as temerity. Do not procrastinate. As health is the greatest of earthly blessings, it should be every rational being's first care. Whoever chooses to use HOSTETTER'S BITTERS as a preventive now may escape the bilious epidemic and endemics which so generally prevail toward the close of the heated term and in the fall months. Is it not worth while to be forearmed when the means of defence are within the reach of all? The BITTERS are a NATIONAL REMEDY, everywhere procurable, and endorsed by the intelligent of every class. Read what leading members of the community, clergymen, physicians, authors, statesmen, men of science, artists, travelers and distinguished soldiers, say about them. On the strength of these credentials give them a trial. They will be found the very best anti bilious medicine that modern pharmacy has introduced.

CURE OF FISTULA.

DR. KEYSER: I write to thank you for your kindness and scientific management of my disease, for which I called to consult you some time in January last. You will remember that I had a complication of diseases, which finally ended in a terrible fistula which I had been advised to "let alone," on account of a harassing cough, which it was feared might fasten it on my lungs. I knew that the peculair mode of treating diseases like mine was by a cutting operation, which, if successful at all, would naturally throw the disease upon the lungs or some other vital organ, on account of the suddenness of the cure and the immediate check to the discharge, which I believed was a salutary provision of nature to get rid of some morbid condition of the system. I feel perfectly satisfied that your method of treatment, purifying the system, and local applications to the fistulous part, must cure, if anything could, without cutting, which I find it did, and I am happy to report myself well in every particular, with sounder and better health than I have had for years. I would also add that the applications you made were almost painless, and have left me a new man with all the energies and vigor of restored health.

Yours, gratefully, [illegible]

HYDRAULIC

COW-MILKER.

WANTED—IMMEDIATELY—All who are looking for business to call and examine the

Hydraulic Cow-Milker,

"A sure cure for acheing hands and kicking cows." It milks the four teats of a cow at once. It imitates the calf draw, and stops drawing to swallow. It will milk any cow perfectly dry in three minutes. It is operated by hand, dog, horse or other power. One man can attend several machines, milking as many cows at once. It is simple, durable and self-adjusting; will fit any cow. Milks three-teated cows as well as any. Easily worked, not liable to get out of order, and has proven by practical use to be more agreeable to the cow than hand-milking. A rare opportunity is now offered to enterprising men either to travel or locate in city or country. Call and examine for yourselves.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

700 MILES

OF THE

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Are now finished and in operation. 160 miles of track have been laid this spring, and the work along the whole line between the Atlantic and Pacific States is being pushed forward more rapidly than ever before. More than twenty thousand men are employed, and it is not impossible that the entire track, from Omaha to Sacramento, will be finished in 1869 instead of 1870. The means provided are ample, and all that energy, men and money can do to secure the completion of this

GREAT NATIONAL WORK,

At the earliest possible day, will be done.

The UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY receive:

I.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations.

II.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road. This is an absolute donation, and will be a source of large revenue in the future.

III.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built. The Government takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c. The interest is now much more than paid in this way, besides securing a great saving in time and money to the Government.

IV.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, to aid in building the road, to the same amount as the U. S. Bonds, issued for the same purpose, and no more. The Government permits the Trustees for the First Mortgage Bondholders to deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the road is completed, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class Railroad, laid with a heavy T rail, and completely supplied with depots, stations, turnouts, car-shops, locomotives, cars, &c.

V.—A CAPITAL STOCK SUBSCRIPTION from the stockholders, of which OVER EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS have been paid in upon the work already done, and which will be increased as the wants of the Company require.

VI.—NET CASH EARNINGS on its Way Business, that already amount to MORE THAN THE INTEREST on the First Mortgage Bonds. These earnings are no indication of the vast through traffic that must follow the opening of the line to the Pacific, but they certainly prove that upon such a property, costing nearly three times their amount, ARE SECURE BEYOND ANY CONTINGENCY.

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

The Union Pacific Bonds run thirty years, are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July, at the Company's Office, in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. in gold. The Principal is payable in gold at maturity. The price is 102, and at the present rate of gold, they pay a liberal income on their cost.

The Company believe that these Bonds, at the present rate, are the cheapest in the market, and reserve the right to advance the price at any time.

Subscriptions will be received in Pittsburgh by

JAMES T. BRADY & Co., corner of Wood and Fourth Streets;
HART, CAUGHEY & Co., corner of Wood and Third Streets;
S. McCLEAN & CO., 75 Fourth Street;
PH. R. MERTZ, corner 5th and Wood Sts.;
ROBINSON BROS., 78 Fourth street;

AND IN NEW YORK

At the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau Street, and by

JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, No. 59 Wall Street, and by the Company's advertised agents throughout the United States.

Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the Bonds will be sent free of charge by return express. Parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.

A PAMPHLET AND MAP FOR 1868 has just been published by the Company, giving fuller information than is possible in an advertisement, respecting the Progress of the Work, the Resources of the Country traversed by the Road, the Means for Construction, and the Value of the Bonds, which will be sent free on application at the Company's offices, or to any of the advertised agents.

JOHN J. CISCO, Treasurer,

MWF NEW YORK.

☞REPUBLICAN

CITY CONVENTION.

The Republicans of the City of Pittsburgh are hereby invited to attend Primary Meetings in their respective Wards on

SATURDAY, August 15th, 1868,

Between the hours of 3 and 7 P. M., and there vote for candidates to be placed in nomination for the several city offices, viz:

One person for Mayor of said city.
One person for Controller of said city.
One person for Treasurer of said city.

The voting at said meetings will be by printed or written ballots, containing the names of the candidates voted for, each office on a ticket by itself, and the elections, as far as practicable, will be conducted in accordance with the laws and usages regulating State, county and city elections, the officers taking care to keep a correct list of all persons voting thereat.

The elections will be conducted, wherever it can be done, by the Republican election officers chosen at the last city election: and in wards where no such officers were chosen, the officers to conduct the election have been designated, as hereinafter mentioned, by the City Committee.

The Committee suggest that the officers thus designated to hold this election shall voluntarily take the usual affidavit administered to election officers under the laws of the State, so as to shut out all cause of complaint.

The election in the First and Second Wards will be held at the Public School Houses in said wards.

In the Third Ward at the southeastern corner of Sixth and Smithfield streets.

In the Fourth Ward at the Public School House.

In the Fifth Ward in the office of the Clerk of the Orphans' Court, at the Court House, under the supervision of W. B. Neeper, George Glass and R. J. Smith, who are appointed the Board to hold said election.

In the Sixth Ward at the Public School House.

In the Seventh Ward at the Public School House.

In the Eighth Ward at the house of Henry Wilson.

In the Ninth Ward at the Public School House.

In the Tenth Ward at the house of Wm. Brown, at the corner of Penn and Mechanics streets.

In the Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth and Seventeenth Wards, at the usual places of holding elections in said wards.

In the Sixteenth Ward at the Wigwam, corner of Pearl and Main streets, under the supervision of Noah G. Craig, Roland Smith and John C. Stewart

In the Eighteenth Ward at the place of holding elections for what was heretofore known as the 2d precinct of Collins township, under the supervision of David Jones, David Holmes and David Kirk.

In the Nineteenth Ward at Joseph Ganster's house on the Greensburg turnpike, under the supervision of John N. Berlin, Wm. H. Morrison and James Joyce.

In the Twentieth Ward at Beitler's School House, under the supervision of Wm. H. Denniston, Geo. F. Rahauser and John R. Baum.

In the Twenty-first Ward at Ross' School House, under the supervision of A. J. Woolslayer, S. B. Ross and B. W. Morgan.

In the Twenty-second Ward at Irwin's School House, under the supervision of John R. Murdock, William Irwin and Randal Morton.

In the Twenty-third ward at the usual place for holding elections in late Peebles township, under the supervision of Joseph Boals, James B. Palmer and James McKibben.

Every supporter of GRANT and COLFAX and the city nominees is earnestly invited to take part in said election, and none other; and the election officers are hereby respectfully urged to use all possible diligence to preserve the purity of the ballot box and secure a fair return of the votes cast.

The election officers, after the votes are counted, will make up duplicate returns thereof, one of which, with the list of voters, shall be placed in the ballot boxes, and the other taken possession of by the Return Judge; and the Return Judges of the several wards shall present the same at a meeting of Return Judges, to be held at the Common Council Chamber, on TUESDAY, August 18th, at 10 o'clock A. M., when they shall cause the same to be added together, and declare the result, the person receiving the highest vote for each office to be declared the nominee.

The Return Judges, at their meeting, will appoint the City Executive Committee to serve for the ensuing year.

The Committee desires to call the attention of the Election Boards to the following resolution, which was adopted at the last meeting of the Committee:

Resolved, That we recommend to the officers of the Primary Election the enforcement of all legal rules respecting the qualification of voters at general elections, in addition to the requirement that the voter shall be a known member of the Union Republican Party.

A resolution was also passed authorizing the Election Boards to fill all vacancies occurring in the officers of their respective districts.

The following are the New York stock quotations as received to-day by Mr. Ph. R. Mertz: Gold 146¼; 1881 bonds, 115⅝; 5-20's '62, 114⅛; 5-20's, '64, 110⅞; 5-20's, '65, old, 112⅛; 5-20's, '65, new, 108⅝; 5-20's, '67, 108⅞; 10-40's, 108¾.

Railroads—New York Central, 130; Erie, 60; Reading, 93⅝; Old Southern, 86¾; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 86¾; Rock Island, 110⅜; Chicago and Northwestern, 81⅝; Chicago and Northwestern, preferred, 81½; Fort Wayne, 109⅜; Ohio and Mississippi, 29¼.

Western Union Telegraph Co., 34⅝.

Mining Shares—Gregory, 4,50; Corrydon, 25; Quartz Hill, 1,05; Smith & Parmalee, 3,90; Quicksilver, 21½.

—The wool clip of Fayette county, Ohio, this year, amounted to 2,000,000 lbs, which sold at 30 to 40c per lb.

—There is nothing essentially new in regard to the crops. Winter wheat has nearly all been secured throughout the country in good condition. Oats have also nearly all been cut, and the yield is large. Rye is abundant, and of good quality. The yield of barley is not very large, but the quality is generally reported to be good. Corn has suffered in some places from drouth, but there is every prospect of a large yield in the aggregate. The hay crop is good everywhere. Cotton is doing well all over the South, and will ripen earlier than usual this season. In short, there is no discount on the prospective prosperity of the farmer and planter, and consequently all commercial interests will be prosperous.

—The Philadelphia Press of Monday say: Money continues abundant on call at from four to six per cent., the supply being largely in excess of the demand. In business circles there are universal complaints of dullness; rather unnatural state of affairs considering the condition of financial matters. Prices of merchandise rule extravagantly high. The want of purchasers, instead of leading to the ordinary consequences—a lowering of prices to attract customers—seems to have no effect. Dealers to a small business, yet they are firm in their demands. Under ordinary circumstances, when the merchants cannot sell the goods they have on hand, or the mechanic get paid for the produce of his labor, he must naturally seek relief in borrowing; but such does not seem to be the case now. Either business men do not want to borrow, or they believe they cannot get what they want, for there is but a small demand for money for legitimate business purposes. Capitalists are indeed melancholy. They cannot lend their funds except at rates of interest which seem ridiculously low; in some instances, as low as three per cent. has been accepted. The time was in the memory of numbers of the merchants now living, when that rate of interest could be obtained per month. Money, in fact, is in a quandary what to do with itself. It prefers to be earning something rather than to lay idle, but, if customers will not come, there can be no gain made.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
TUESDAY, August 4, 1868.

CRUDE—The Crude market continues very quiet and devoid of any new characteristics, worthy of special notice. The demand seems to be very limited and the offerings are light, and so far as we could see there is no disposition in order to effect sales. We can report one thousand barrels for all the year, sellers option, at 12½; and 500 delivered on cars at Venango City at $5,40. This last sale shows a decline of 10cts per bbl, as sales were reported yesterday at $5,50. Spot oil is quoted nominally at 14¼ to 14½, with no sales, and the same figures will apply to all the month, sellers option. Fisher & Bro. received a telegram this afternoon announcing another new well, making the third they have struck at Pleasantville, besides three others in which they have an interest.

REFINED—The refined market is also very quiet though steady and while there is next to nothing doing prices, thus far, seem to be pretty well maintained. There was but a single sale reported 1,500 bbls for the first half of August, at 34 1-2c. In the absence of any other sales, we continue to quote at 34 1-2a32¾c for August; 35c for September and October, and 34 1-2c for the last five months. This last advance in oil has been better and longer sustained than any previous advance for some time, and it has seemed for the last three or four weeks, that while "bears" are becoming weaker, the "bulls" appear to be getting stronger.

—Since the above was put in type we have the following additional sales reported: Refined—4,000 bbls for September to December on private terms; 500 bbls last half for September at 35c. Benzole—3,000 bbls sellers option, for September, at 18 1-2c.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
TUESDAY, August 4, 1868.

There seems to be a firmer feeling in the Grain and Flour market, and prices are rather tending upward. It seems to us that the impression is beginning to prevail, that the bottom has been touched for the present at least, and it also begins to appear that the harvest has not come up to general expectations; it is generally conceded that there is a much larger yield of Wheat than last year, as there was a larger area of ground sewn, but the quality is not so good, and therefore what is made up in is considerably neutralized by the quality.

BUTTER—Is in steady deman;d we can report sales of good to prime fresh packed at 30 to 35.

EGGS—Dull at 18c.

CHEESE—Is quiet and unchanged at 13 to 14 for Western Reserve and Hamburg; 15 to 16 for Factory and 18 to 20 for Sweitzer.

POTATOES—Continue very dull, and declining, and we now quote at $3 to $3,50 per bbl.

GREEN APPLES—Are in good demand, and sell readily at $4 to $5,50 to $6 per bbl, for common to choice.

GRAIN—Wheat appears to be in better demand and a firmer feeling seems to prevail; we can report one car new Red at $2,15, to a dealer; and another car at the same figure to a different buyer. The mills are taking hold with more freedom and some of them would pay more than they were willing to give a week since. Oats are firm but unchanged with a supply pretty well up to the demand; we continue to quote at 82a83c. on track and in elevator and 84a85 in store. New oats have not made their appearance here as yet, although we hear of some contracts having been closed for future delivery, including five cars to be delivered this month at 55c. Rye is scarce and in demand at $1,40 and might bring $1,45. New Rye may be quoted at $1,25, for future delivery. Corn is quiet and unchanged at $1,05 to $1,10 as to quality. Nothing doing in Barley.

HAY—Weighmaster McNulty, at the Allegheny Diamond scales, reports sales of 39 loads at $22 to $29 per ton.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is in fair jobbing demand and firm but unchanged at 13¾a 14c for Shoulders; 16½ to 18½ for Ribbed and Clear sides; and 21½ for Sugar Cured Ham. Lard 19½ for prime kettle. Dried Beef 21 1-2c. Mess Pork $28,50a29.

LARD OIL—Unchanged but firm at $1,40 for No. 1.

FLOUR—Is quiet and unchanged at $10 to $10,75 for Spring Wheat; $10,75 to $11,25 for Winter Wheat and $12a13 for fancy brands. Rye Flour has advanced to $9,25 9,50.

CHRISTINA NILSSON.

Christina Nilsson, the young Swedish cantatrice, who will visit the United States next fall, and whom many excellent musical critics have unhesitatingly pronounced fully equal to Jenny Lind, is of very humble descent, and M. Mahalin draws in his spicy work "Les jolies actrices de Paris," the following interesting sketch of her past life:

"It is snowing. The skies, all black as they are with night and cold, commence turning gray in the east. After awhile the sun rises in the mist. A vague bluish light seems to descend with the snow-flakes. Here and there pines and birches, covered with icicles, tremble and moan in the wind. In a sort of ravine are to be seen a few wretched cabins; from the snow-clad roofs, made of bark, ascend blue clouds of smoke; those who look out of the low windows of those cabins behold a flock of ravens on the dazzling white plain.

"We are far from Paris, fifty leagues from Stockholm, in a miserable village of the province of Smaland.

"Let us enter one of those hovels, which seem to have been made rather for wild boars than for men.

"The poor people here live in the same room with their cattle. A miserable stove emits painful sounds, in the middle of the floor. On the ground, in a motley group, lie goats, sheep and children, stretching their necks wistfully toward the kettle on the hearth. These children are dressed in rags. Under a window in the roof sits the mother spinning. The father, smoking a pipe, sits in a corner of the room. Every now and then are heard from without the merry sounds of jingling sleigh-bells, or the dull noise of a horse galloping past; a sleigh darts past with lightning speed. In the same manner there appears and disappears a fur cap, fur robe, a fur jacket; then the father's voice drowns the noise of the spinning-wheel, the seething kettle on the hearth, and the hissing green wood in the stove.

"Christina!"

From the group of the children there emerges the shapely head of a very pretty girl, surrounded by a crown of straw-colored, soft and silky hair.

"Christiana, take your violin and go to the hight."

"In this manner Christina Nillson entered upon her career as an artiste. What a contrast between the highway, on which she once, when a little girl, played the violin, and the magnificent salon in which an enthusiastic audience now lavishes applause on the great cantatrice! And yet, not more than ten years have elapsed since her debut.

"Ten years ago, a distinguished Swedish gentleman ascended that hight, heard the little peasant girl play the violin, caused her to conduct him to her father, and said to him: "Nilsson, I want to make yon an offer. Your daughter is a talented child. Intrust her to me, and I am sure I can make a great artiste of her."

"Old Nilsson," a sharp and clear headed peasant, knew full well that his little daughter possessed extraordinary musical talents; and, inasmuch as the aristocratic stranger gave him several gold pieces, and promised to send him more money from time to time, he did not hesitate long; and little Christina, after bidding farewell to her parents and brothers and sisters, and shedding a few tears, accompanied the gentleman who had promised to make a great artiste of her, and had already won her young heart by the great kindness with which he treated her. Two days afterward Christina reached with him the city of Gothenburg, where a new outfit was bought for her, and where everybody who saw her in her new dress exclaimed, "What an exceedingly pretty child." Her protector then took her to a boarding school, where she was so industrious and made such rapid progress that, a year afterward, she could already be sent to Stockholm, where she studied music, and where all professors and musicians who heard her sing, wondered at her extraordinary talents, and said that at length a worthy successor of Jenny Lind had been found. Upon her first appearance in a public concert, where she sang a few simple national songs, she electrified the whole audience and elicited the most rapturous applause. Finally, when her professors in Stockholm could no longer teach her anything new, she went to Paris, where Professor Wartel completed her musical education, and where she soon after achieved such marvelous triumphs on the stage of the Theatre Lyrique.

"And what a difference there is between that wretched room in the low hovel in the Swedish province of Smaland, and the apartments in which the cantatrice now lives.

"Her apartments are on the fourth floor of a large and very fine house in the Rue de Rivoli, and the Tuileries are to be seen from the windows of the salon.

"The salon, the only place in this sanctuary to which profane persons have as yet gained access, is in white and gold, and its furniture is covered with blue damask. It has only one window and three doors; that on the right leads to the bed chamber of the mistress, that on the left to the room of the lady of company, and the third communicates with a passage leading to the anteroom.

"The mantle-piece is made of Parian marble, and so beautifully wrought are the bronze ornaments on it that it can but delight the eyes of all lovers of the style of Louis the Fifteenth. There is, however, nothing at all of those little knicknacs indicating the cocodette or coquette. Against the wall, opposite to the window, stands a piano; beside it a sofa and a gueridon. The piano is loaded with music books; the sofa and gueridon are loaded with bouquets.

"The hands of the clock point to midnight.

"Before the piano sits a young lady. Her dress, tasteful though simple, reaches up to the throat. Her hand, with the shapely though somewhat long fingers, touches the keys of the instrument, while her eyes wander about the room, and are fixed now on her handsome slippers, now on the window curtains, through which the gas lights of the Rue de Rivoli are to be seen.

"She is absorbed in deep reflections; she seems to listen for something in her past. Does she not, perhaps, think of the immortal masters to whose compositions she has just given expression?

"No, she calls to mind the days of her childhood; she hears again those words which speak more impressively to her heart and soul than the music of Mozart:

"'Christina, take your violin, and go to the hight!'"—Translated for the Cincinnati Commercial.

The railroad bridge now in course of construction over the Ohio river, between Louisville, Ky., and Jeffersonville, Ind., it is stated, will just be one mile in length. It will have 24 spans; two of these will be 370 feet each, and six 245.5 feeth each. The remaining sixteen spans will be about 192 feet each in length. Excepting on the longest spans, the rails will be placed on the tops of the girders, these being of a class known as the Fink truss. The estimated cost of the bridge, which is to be completed by September 1st, 1869, is $1,600,000.

Cameo Engraving.

The art of cutting cameos is a species of sculpture, rather than engraving. There are two kinds of cameos, one of which is of different colored strata, so that the raised figure is of a different color from the ground, the other is of the coach shell. The shells are sawed into squares with saws of soft iron, similar to those used by sculptors. After the shells are cut up into suitable pieces they are ground on a stone to their required shapes, by grinding them nicely on the edges and leaving them thick in the middle. After this they must be cemented on a stick about 6 or 7 inches long, with cement of Burgundy pitch and rosin of equal parts heated together until they are perfectly amalgamated. The end of the stick is immersed in the cement while it is warm, and enough attaches itself to it to fasten the shell, which must also be slightly warmed or the two will not be attached. After being cool the shell is ready for cutting.

To produce a likeness of an object, the best way is to cut the profile on paper, lay it on the shell and trace it out. The best gravers, the harder the better, are alone fit for the work, and they are ground down to different shaped points, some diamond, some oval, some chisel shaped and some round. After the likeness or design is traced on the shell it has to be blocked out with the hand, or it might be done by tracdrills in a lathe. The blocking out is done by tracing the disign with the diamond pointed graver, and leaving the pencilings distinct and cutting away all the outside with chisels and gouges, taking care to leave the groundwork thick enough to finish up.

After the blocking out is completed, begin with the top of the profession in making the head, by leaving a space for the hair a little raised and then engraving the features, taking great pains not to do too much at a cut, for if once spoiled there is no remedy. The neck and breast are done next, as cautiously as the face. The hair is done last and is the most difficult part to perform, although the uninitiated would think it the simplest, but it is the most difficult work of all, for no matter how good the rest of the work may be, if the hair is poorly executed, the whole figure looks bad. In cutting the hair it must be gracefully curled with delicate curves. Sculptured heads are the best models for the learner to study.

After the figure or design is finished with the graver, the cameo is polished with pumice stone as smooth as possible, until all the marks of the graver disappear. It is then finished with a stiff tooth brush and potter's clay, or whiting and water, and afterward washed in pure water, when it will be observed to have that beautiful polish for which cameos are so justly admired and which made them, on account of their chasteness of coloring, a very popular branch of jewelry.

To take the cameo off the stick after it is finished, it is necessary to heat the stick over a spirit lamp until the cement warms, when it is ready for framing.

The Nelson Ledges.

In going from Garretsville Ohio, to the Ledges, a distance of five miles, you travel over some of the most beautiful country in this vicinitr. You pass through the little village of Nelson, where they have a very nice soldiers' monument. About two miles and you are at the Ledges. You notice a difference in the climate as soon as you get in sight of them. At first sight it appears like a great wall of rock, with here and there a crevice leading into it. You enter one of these creveces, pass through a narrow passage a few feet and emerge into an immense opening. Here, on every side of you, the smooth rocks rise for 100 feet above you, a beautiful stream of cool, clear water runs at your feet, and you hasten to refresh yourself with the pure water which comes from a spring in a deep cave. You follow the stream, stoop down to go under a rock, and on the other side enter a large cave about twenty feet across and fifteen feet high. You cross this cave, the "Devil's Den," and going through a narrow passage, come out on the top of the rocks. Here you have a splendid view of the country for miles around. There are several waterfalls, in the most prominent of which the water falls from a rock fifty feet, in its descent striking another rock opposite, which throws it back into a large cave, where there is a splendid chance to take a shower bath.—Cor. Cleveland Herald.

—The inhabitants of Jersey City design agitating the proposition for the construction of a canal on the northern and western boundary line of that city from the river at Hoboken on the north around on the line of Millcreek to the cove on the south. It is claimed that such a work would give Jersey City immense facilities for docks, warehouses, &c., besides increasing her trade. One citizen has offered $200,000 for the control of the canal for a number of years.

We wish him a pleasant trip and a safe return.

Mysterious Robbery.—The office of the steamboat Fearless, at 136 Water street, was entered late Saturday night or early Sunday morning, and robbed of fifteen dollars worth of postage stamps. On Monday morning the office was found to be locked as usual, and nothing appeared to be disturbed but the stamps. It is certainly a mystery, but as yet no clue has been discovered.

Six Way Fire-Plug.—Of this new plug, the Cleveland Herald gives the following account of a test in that city: Chief Engineer Hill tested the patent fire-plug at the foot of Superior street, at 2 o'clock P. M. Monday, by attaching six hose and throwing as many streams of water almost to the top of the National Bank building, the propelling power being simply the pressure of water at the reservoir. With steamers attached, all the streets in the vicinity could be flooded in a short time.

THE ALLEGHENY SCHOOLS.

Meeting of the Board of Control—Reports of Committees—Eighth Ward Tax Question—Teachers' Salaries—Special Meeting Called—Election of Music Teacher.

The Board of School Controllers of Allegheny City held a regular monthly meeting last evening in the Common Council Chamber, City Building. The meeting came to order at a quarter to eight o'clock, Rev. E. E. Swift opening with prayer.

President Clark occupied the chair, and R. B. Francis officiated as Secretary.

At the call of the roll the following members answered to their names:

Messrs. Barr, Brown, John Jr., Barker, Borland, Chadwick, Crowther, Dunlap, Eaton, Francis, Grouard, Kollock, Kimball, Ingham, Loomis, Lea, Lockhart, Mussler, McCance, McClinton, Richey, Swift, Thorn, Torrence, Tremble, Walton, White, Young, Alexander, and President Clark.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The reports of the Local Boards were called for.

The First Ward Board reported the following elections of teachers:

Principal—Mr. Morehead; Assistant Principal, Miss Sarah McLaughlin.

Principal of Primary Department—M. E. Carpenter; Assistant, Miss Lamont.

Intermediate Department—Misses Lecky, Burt, McDonald, Dorrington, Lysle, McQuigg, Mulherron, Ackley, Cunningham and Louden.

The elections were confirmed.

The Second and Third Ward Boards presented no report.

Mr. Kollock, from the Fourth ward Board, reported that they had elected Fulton Phillips, Principal, and A. McKinley, Teacher of Writing, which elections were approved.

Mr. Lea reported the election of the following teachers, which was approved:

Intermediate Department.—Miss Annie Schreiber, and Miss Emma Agnew.

Primary Department—Miss Annie Pitcairn, and Miss L. A. Johnson.

The Sixth ward Board presented no report.

Mr. Swift, from the Committee on Grades and Text Books, presented their report, recommending:

First. That the grades for the ensuing year be the same as those adopted by the Board August 4th, 1863, and soon after published in the rules for the government of the Public Schools of the city of Allegheny. Second. That the following list of Text books be adopted for the coming year: Osgood's Speller and series of Readers, Clark's Grammar, Brooks' Primary, Normal, Mental and Elementary Arithmetics, Ray's Third Part and Test Examples in Arithmetic, Ray's Higher Arithmetic, Ray's Algebra, first and second parts, Davies' Legendre Geometry, Gwyot's Geographies, Thomas Lynd's Etymology, Pinneo's Guide to Composition, Goodrich's Pictorial History United States, Barber's General History, Smith's Astronomy, Well's National Philosophy, Cutler's Anatomy and Physiology, Winlow's Mental Philosophy, Woods' Botany, Sheppard's Text-book on the Constitution, Alden's Citizens Manual, Bryant and Stratton's Common School Book-keeping, Loomis' Elements of Geology, Webster's School Dictionary, Merry Chimes (music book.)

The report was signed by Messrs. E. E. Swift, S. F. Crowthers, John B. Ingham, Alex. Young and C. W. Kimball.

Mr. Eaton presented a report which had been handed to him by Mr. King, one of the Committee, before his departure for Europe, recommending Dean's Series of Arithmetics instead of Ray's.

Mr. Young said that as Mr. King had been notified regarding the meetings of the Committee and had absented himself, his report, therefore, could not be accepted.

Mr. Eaton wished the gentleman to explain, but the request was ruled out of order.

A motion now being made to accept the minority report it was lost.

On motion, the majority report was then taken up and acted upon seriatim.

The list of books was read over and all of them approved, until Ray's Arithmetic was reached, when Mr. Eaton moved to substitute Dean's series, which was lost. The reading of the list was then continued.

Mr. Torrens moved to substitute Warren's Geography instead of Guyot's.

Mr. Alex. Young said he believed, after a careful examination with the Committee, that Guyot's was the superior work.

Mr. Lockhart thought that the Board ought to know more about Warren's before it was introduced. No useless expense should be incurred.

Mr. Francis thought changes were not always for the best. Unless some decided benefit could be shown, he would not be in favor of changing.

Mr. Young said that a little cost should not prevent the securing of the best treatise.

Mr. Eaton opposed the change. He considered Warren's the best, and thought it should be adopted for another year.

Quite a discussion followed, which was participated in by most of the members, some of them adducing the experience of their own children, showing that Warren's work was hard to understand.

The agents of the respective works being present, were requested to state their terms. There was no great difference in the prices, except that Warren's intermediate Geography was somewhat the cheapest work. The President said he knew that teachers had some difficulty in teaching children by Warren's book. He liked Guyot's work and thought it was the best. A division on the question being called, resulted in fourteen for Warren's and fifteen for Guyot's. The Secretary stated an adoption of the book would require a majority of the Board present, which would be nineteen.

All the other works named in the report were then taken up and unanimously adopted without debate, after which the report as a whole was adopted with the exception of the item in regard to the Geography.

On motion, the election of a music teacher was next taken up.

Mr. Young nominated Mr. Wm. Slack.

Mr. Crowther nominated Mr. J. M. Darling.

Mr. Borland presented a communication from Mr. Darling, stating that he would not be a candidate in opposition to Mr. Slack. If two teachers were to be elected he would be a candidate for one of the positions.

The election was then proceeded with, resulting in the unanimous choice of Mr. Slack.

Mr. Barker, from the Committee to consider the communication presented at the last meeting from the School Board in the Eighth ward, late Duquesne borough, relative to the school tax in that ward, reported that they had submitted the question to legal gentlemen, and presented their opinion with the report, which was that the city had the legal right to collect the school tax in that district, and that no other person or persons had any legal right to do so.

On motion, the report was accepted and ordered to be filed.

Mr. Lea presented the report on Teachers' Salaries. The report recommended that the salaries of all the teachers in the different grades, including the music teacher, remain the same as last year, as well as the salaries of the Secretary of the Board, Janitor of the Board and Janitor of the Colored Schools.

The number of teachers at the close of last year was ninety-four. To this must be added for the Fifth ward one principal and one teacher in the Intermediate Departments, and for the Third ward three teachers in the Primary Department, thus increasing the force of teachers for the year 1868-9 to ninety-eight, at a cost of $50,960, being an increase over last year of $2,600.

Mr. Eaton moved to amend the report by increasing the salary of the principal of the Colored Schools from $950 to $1,000, which was carried.

Mr. Lea stated that, since the report had been made out, the Committee had been informed that several additional teachers were needed in the Second and Third wards which were not included in the report, and which would increase the amount of the salaries over last year about $4,000, instead of $2,600 as the report stated.

The report was finally accepted as amended and ordered to be filed.

Mr. Kollock, on behalf of the Committee on Printing, asked for information in regard to the number of copies of the annual report of the Board which would be needed.

On motion of Mr. Eaton, the Committee was instructed to print one thousand copies for distribution and the use of the members of the Board.

The Chairman said he thought it would be well for the Board to have a special meeting, to take action in regard to the question of Geography books for the schools. The schools would reopen before another regular meeting, and it was important that the matter of books should be settled before that time.

On motion of Mr. Kollock, it was decided to hold a special meeting on Tuesday, August 11th.

On motion adjourned.

Entertainment by the Birmingham Caledonians—Awarding of Medals.

The Caledonia Club of Birmingham and vicinity gave an entertainment in the Town Hall on Monday evening, on the occasion of the awarding of medals to the successful contestants in National Sports at Glenwood Grove on July 23d. There were a number of invited guests, citizens of the borough, and quite a goodly company were assembled. A table was spread with all the good things of the season in profusion, which were partaken of with zest and appreciation, as indicated by the subsequent proceedings. Matthew Pate, Esq., the President, and Capt. Hugh McKissick, the Vice President of the Club, were present, contributing much to the general enjoyment.

Medals were presented as follows:

1. For Highland Fling, Miss Maggie Steiner.
2. Putting Heavy Stone; Mr. Moore, Allegheny.
3. Pitching Quoits; David Bruce.
4. Short Race, 150 yards; Philip Houck.

5 and 6. Highland Fling, equal contestants; Daniel Anderson and Geo. S. Wood.

7. Long Race, 400 yards; Philip Houck.
8. Hitch and Kick; Richard Jones.

The President, Mr. Pate, made some interesting remarks, in alluding to the usages and customs of the olden time in Scotland.

M. Lipp, Esq., Justice of the Peace, in response to calls, made an excellent speech, eulogizing the Scotch people, and making some hard hits at the British Government.

An interesting feature of the evening was the presentation of silver-headed ebony canes to Messrs. Pate and McKissick, the President and Vice President of the club, by Mr. Geo. S. Wood, who indulged in a few felicitous remarks. Mr. Pate replied on his own behalf, briefly, but very appropriately. Mr. Lipp replied on behalf of Captain McKissick.

A poem on Scotland, read by Captain McKissick, elicited the highest admiration.

Mr. P. Hauch indulged in some gymnastic exercises for the gratification of the guests. Some of his feats were regarded as remarkable, entitling him to high rank as a gymnast, although he is not a professional.

A number of Scottish songs were sung, and among others Mr. G. S. Wood evinced rather remarkable vocal powers.

The company separated at a late hour, after having had a most agreeable time, by singing "Auld Lang Syne." No previous re-union of the Caledonians and their friends passed off more pleasantly or with more good feeling.

Watchfully Affectionate.

Mr. John Rimmell related a story yesterday to Mayor Drum which illustrates, in a forcible manner, the truth intended to be conveyed in Goldsmith's line, "What is friendship but a name." John said that he and a friend, whose name is Charles Ramsey, were sauntering through Allegheny on Monday evening, holding sweet communion together, when they came across a house by the wayside, on the corner of First and Middle streets, in the Third ward, into which they entered for the purpose of refreshing the inner man by a "draught from the flowing bowl," as Dick Swiveller would say. While there and after they had satisfied themselves as to the quality of the beverages on sale, Charles, in an excess of affection, threw his arms around his friend, and by way of expressing his feelings gave him a hug, such as one might expect from that animal in the Polar regions which is justly celebrated for the strength and power of its embrace. After this display of loving friendship, which almost drew tears from the eyes of the kind-hearted feminine behind the bar, the twain departed, to continue their rambles, apparently firmer friends than before. Alas for human fickleness! From that hour the words of friendship which had hitherto bound them so closely together were sundered, for John alleges that in that affectionate embrace, Charles managed to appropriate from his vest pocket a valuable silver watch, thereby relieving him of about twenty-five dollars' worth of personal property. The Mayor, after listening to the story, at the solicitation of John, wrote a note and placed it in the hands of one of his aids, requesting Charles to call at his office, where his injured friend was ready to hear any explanation of the occurrence which he might have to offer, and if satisfactory, freely and fully "forgive and forget."

Going Into the Shingle Business.

A young man named Arnold Ingram, desirous of establishing himself in the shingle trade, adopted a rather original method of starting into the business. About two o'clock yesterday morning, proceeding to the lumber yard of Mr. Alex. Patterson, corner of Preble and Juniata streets, Sixth ward, Allegheny, he began to work diligently in removing the shingles from the yard to the river bank. He had removed about ten thousand, when officers Montgomery and Greenwood, noticing the singular circumstance, approached the workman and enquired what he was doing. He, in reply, said that a man whose name he had forgotten, had that day purchased of Mr. Patterson a large quantity of shingles, and that he had been employed by the purchaser to have the shingles ready on the bank of the river, as a raft would be along very early in the morning to take them away. The story seemed plausible enough, but the officers not being quite satisfied as to its truthfulness, took the man in custody, and proceeding first to Mr. Patterson's house asked him about the sale. That gentleman said he had made no such sale that day, which was altogether a different story from that of the arrested chap. The officers, under the circumstances, conveyed their prisoner to the lock-up, and yesterday morning he had a hearing, which resulted in his being committed for a hearing in default of $1,000 bail. He doubtless thinks by this time that the shingle business in some departments is rather unprofitable.

Went Through Him.

John Kober, if his statement be true, came across some "friends" in his nocturnal rambles on Monday, who went through him in a rather unpleasant style. He alleges that at the time mentioned he visited a house on Overhill street, in the Eighth ward, and while there he was robbed of a silver watch valued at twenty-five dollars and his pocketbook containing one hundred and twenty-eight dollars in money. He gave a detailed description of the money, but could not tell the names of the depredators. Warrants were issued by Mayor Blackmore.

THE FORCES ORGANIZING.

Below we give reports of Grant and Colfax Club meetings in various districts. The work goes bravely on.

FIRST WARD, PITTSBURGH.

A meetin was held at City Hall last evening for the purpose of perfecting the organization of the Grant and Colfax Club for the First ward.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. James Rees, and on motion Joseph Ross, Esq., was appointed Chairman.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Mr. Hunter moved that a Committee of nine, for the purpose of organizing the ward, be appointed. Adopted.

The following gentlemen were appointed members of the Committee: George B. Hubbard, George W. Coffin, Josiah Cohen, George D. Perkins, Alexander W. Rook, Charles Bierman, D. R. Speer, Edwin Kincaid, W. Jarvis.

The Club then adjourned to meet on Friday evening next, to hear the report of the Committee on Permanent Organization.

SECOND WARD, PITTSBURGH.

The Grant Club of the Second ward, Pittsburgh, held a regular meeting last evening, Dr. James King, President pro tem, presiding. The Chairman of the Organization Committee, Thomas Bigelow, Esq., reported the number of members who had already enrolled their names which was quite large. On motion of J. L. Slentz, Esq., a committee consisting of Messrs. Slentz, C. M. Gormly, and Edgar Horsfall, was appointed to wait upon the Republican voters of the ward to obtain new members to the club. The Finance Committee, through Edwin House, Esq., reported that the sum of $300 had been already subscribed to the treasury, which amount it was expected would be swelled to $2,000 before the committee had ended its labors. After brief speeches by Messrs. Steele, Phillips, Bigelow, Paul Cook, Phelps, and others, the meeting adjourned with three cheers for Grant, Colfax and the Chicago platform. The Second ward will do her full duty at the approaching election. No district is better organized, nor is any better prepared to help swell the majority of ten thousand promised for our county in the Chicago Convention. For Common Council in this ward, Messrs. Vick, House, Carroll and Houston are mentioned, and doubtless these gentlemen will meet with little or no opposition for the Republican nomination.

FOURTH WARD, PITTSBURGH.

The Republicans of this ward met last evening at the School House and took steps towards organizing a Club. John H. Hare, Esq., was called to the chair, and W. J. M'Clure appointed Secretary. The following Committee on Permanent Organization was appointed: Colonel Joseph Browne, Alfred Clark, Ed. F. Whitney. Adjourned to meet Tuesday evening next.

SEVENTH AND EIGHTH WARDS, PITTSBURGH.

A stated meeting of the Grant and Colfax Club was held last evening. There was a very large attendance.

The Finance Committee reported additional collections.

The President, Mr. Joseph Hartman, announced the following as the Executive Committee: Dr. J. Guy McCandless, Ed. D. Brush, Joseph A. Butler, Geo. Jeremy, J. R. Newman, James Patterson, John Rebman, Samuel Scott, Thomas McCallem, Joseph Zeigler.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That all persons who will sign a pledge to give their undivided support to our nominees for President and Vice President, U. S. Grant and Schuyler Colfax, be considered members of the Seventh and Eighth Ward Grant and Colfax Club.

Upwards of one hundred and forty persons enrolled their names as members of the Club.

Adjourned to meet on Tuesday evening of next week.

ELEVENTH WARD, PITTSBURGH.

The Republicans of the Eleventh (old Seventh) Ward assembled at the School House on Green street, last evening, persuant to call, for the purpose of organizing a Grant and Colfax Club. Ex-Mayor Wm. C. McCarthy was called to the Chair, and Messrs. S. W. Hill and B. F. Kennedy were chosen Secretaries.

On motion Messrs. N. P. Reed, James M. McEwen, Stewart Dalzell, Wm. J. Moorhead, John Wandless, Lewis Roll, James Shannon and Robert Reed were appointed a committee on organization and to prepare a Constitution for the Club, to report at a meeting on Tuesday night of next week, to which time the meeting adjourned.

THE FIFTH WARD, ALLEGHENY.

A meeting of the Republican voters of the Fifth ward, Allegheny City, was held last evening at the Fifth Ward School House, corner of Fayette and Chartiers streets, and a Grant and Colfax Club organized.

The following officers were unanimously elected: Hon. John E. Parke, President; Joseph Walton and Alexander Patterson, Vice-Presidents; Cyrus Townsend, Secretary; George I. Parkin, Treasurer.

After organization the Club adjourned to meet on Friday evening, at 7½ o'clock, for the enrollment of members.

SIXTH WARD, ALLEGHENY.

The Republicans of the Sixth ward, Allegheny, have organized a Grant and Colfax Club for the campaign. Mr. William F. Trimble was elected President and Mr. James E. Stevenson was chosen Secretary. The Club is already of considerable numerical strength, and all loyal citizens of that ward are requested to enrol their names at once.

SOUTH PITTSBURGH.

The South Pittsburgh Grant Club met at the public school house at eight o'clock last evening, President W. H. Barker in the chair.

The minutes of the previous meeing were read and approved.

The various committees reported and reports were accepted.

Mr. Wm. Stark was, on motion of D. A. Jones, added to the Committee on Finance.

Several names were added to the roll.

The meeting was entertained by Prof. Jones and the Glee Club, with some campaign songs, which were received with applause.

During the proceedings addresses were delivered by Messrs. W. H. Barker, Dr. A. Jones and M. S. Humphreys, and at 9:30 P. M. the meeting adjourned with three cheers for the Republican nominees, to meet on next Tuesday evening at half past-seven o'clock.

MOUNT WASHINGTON.

The Republicans of Mount Washington are determined that their district shall not give a diminished majority at the approaching elections. On Monday evening a large and enthusiastic meeting of citizens was held for the purpose of organizing a Grant Club. After a few brief speeches and the adoption of a set of patriotic resolutions, an organization was effected by electing D. B. Ferguson, Esq, President, and R. H. Armstrong, Secretary. The Club will do good service in the campaign, being composed of active and intelligent citizens, who mean business first, last and all the time.

A GLEE CLUB IN BELLVUE.

The Republican citizens of Bellvue have organized a Grant and Colfax Glee Club for the campaign. It is composed of some of the best citizens of this enterprising borough, and will no doubt do efficient service. Bellvue is fully awake, and promises to roll up a handsome majority in favor of Grant and Colfax and against Seymour and Revolution.

Extensive Larceny—The Perpetrator Arrested.

Theodore Weiss, a butcher doing business on the corner of Penn and Mechanic streets, made information yesterday before Mayor Drum, against a young man named Sunlight, for larceny. Weiss stated that he had secured the services of Sunlight to attend to his shop while he attended a pic nic on Monday. The next morning when Weiss arose he discovered that some two hundred dollars in money, a check on the First National Bank for $187 18, and a valuable silver watch were missing. He immediately suspected that Sunlight was the guilty party, and in company with officer Shaffer visited his boarding house in Allegheny, but failed to find him in. The fellow was subsequently arrested and taken to the lockup, where upon being searched the stolen property was discovered in his possession. He stated that he had taken the valuables from Weiss's house about eleven o'clock on Monday evening while that gentleman was asleep, but intended returning them again. In default of bail he was committed for trial.

Died From His Injuries.

Our readers will remember the particulars of the explosion at the Album Oil Works, on Tuesday last, at which Mr. Robert Lafferty, one of the proprietors, was so terribly burned. To-day it becomes our painful duty to announce the death of Mr. Lafferty, which occurred yesterday morning at his residence, No. 90 Wylie street. For a few days after the accident slight hopes of his recovery were entertained, but on Thursday last he began to sink, and despite all the exertions of medical skill and the most assiduous attention, death ensued as stated, and closed his career on earth. The deceased was over sixty-one years of age and one of our most enterprising and widely known citizens. In the home circle a kind and indulgent parent, and among his associates a genial hearted companion, he leaves a stricken and bereaved family and a large circle of loving friends to mourn his untimely death.

Bad Material for Paving.

The attention of the Street Committee and City Regulator is directed to the very inferior quality of boulders with which the upper portions of Third and Fourth streets are to be repaired. We examined the collection piled on Grant street with much care and arrived at the conclusion that our rivers had either given out in their supply of the firm, solid, small boulders which were formerly delivered for paving by contractors, else the parties supplying the lot mentioned are making a handsome spueclation on an inferior article. The boulders are exceedingly large and rotten, while much of the sand stone furnished in place of boulders is unfit for making street pavements. We ask the proper authorities to call and examine into the quality of the stones before the work of paving is commenced, and we think they will decide with us that the entire lot is of too inferior a quality for the purposes for which they are intended.

—Since writing the above we learn that Street Commissioner Hunter, with his usual promptitude, has condemned the boulders referred to, as totally unfit for use. This action on his part will be accepted as new evidence of his fitness for the responsible position he occupies.

Xylography.

We have on exhibition in our office a club brought from the far West, which is as fine a specimen of Xylography as one could desire to see It was whittled with an ordinary jack-knife, out of a piece of stout white maple wood, and is literally covered with artistic designs cleverly worked out. The top or handle, is an elaborately carved eagle, bearing in its mouth a scroll, winding its way about the cane, inscribed "Freedom for ever." Immediately beneath is a full statue of General Grant in full army dress, with sword and pistols at his side. He is standing on a serpent, which is crushed by the weight of two cannons and a number of broken chains and other devices, emblamatic of treason, war and emancipation. Beneath these main figures are laurel wreaths, enclosing medallions of Lincoln, Douglas, Sherman and Sheridan, while the reverse is made up with many figures carved in the neatest manner imaginable, and representing peace and war. Several mottoes, together with the dying words of Douglas, are worked out boldly on the cane. This is such a fine specimen of workmanship that one can hardly believe that it was cut out by a Chief of the Ogle Ally Sioux tribe of the Rocky Mountains. We don't believe it was.

Reception.

The Erie Dispatch says: Bishop Mullen, of Allegheny city, the newly appointed head of this diocese, will arrive in town in the Pittsburgh train. He was consecrated at St. Paul's Church in Pittsburgh, and has now received his commission for active work in our vicinity. When he arrives his friends of St. Mary's, St. Patrick's, and St. Joseph's Churches intend to meet him at the depot and escort him down town. The children of St. Mary's and St. Joseph's Churches, the St. George's Society, St. Benedict Society, and St. Joseph's Society of the latter church, will turn out in good order, and the Mayor, with a delegation from both councils, will add interest to the occasion. The Bishop will find himself among friends from the start, and we hope his labors in our community will be attended with great success in improving the moral and religious condition of the people.

Shipment of Coal.

The sudden rise in the Monongahela river has enabled the coal merchants to float out heavy fleets of coal to the points below. Unusual activity has prevailed on the wharf during the past few days, and employment on the barges and boats has been afforded to thousands of men. The following is an estimate of the shipment of black diamonds during the present rise:

For Cincinnati	520,000	Bush
For Louisville	935,000	"
For Ironton (coke)	60,000	"
Total	1,515,000	"

The returns for this vast amount may be expected within sixty days, when so much money thrown into circulation will have a beneficial effect on the general trade.

Fire in Birmingham.

Early yesterday morning a fire broke out in the rear portion of the residence of James Hays, Esq., on Carson street, East Birmingham. The fire was promptly extinguished, but considerable damage was done to the building before it was discovered. The family were all away at the time and the house was closed up, which leads to the supposition that the fire was the work of an incendiary. Fire Marshal Murphy will investigate the case to-day, when fuller particulars will doubtless be developed.

One More.

Sarah E. Dinsedall and Rebecca Wilds, residing in Allegheny, had another little misunderstanding a few days ago. Sarah alleges, this time, that Rebecca drove spikes into the panels of her door, splitting the same and almost destroying it. Through the mediation of Alderman Bailey, before whom Sarah brought suit against the alleged offender, the affair was compromised. This makes the fourteenth misunderstanding, and it seems really as if they never would be able to properly understand each other.

A Word About Sewing Machines.

The readers of the GAZETTE and other newspapers may have noticed a paid communication of a certain Sewing Machine Agent of this city, who seems to cover the lack of merit in his own machine by misrepresenting other and better machines.

In his advertisement he makes the statement that the increase in the sales of his machine, last year, were five hundred per cent., while that of the Singer Machine, which had the largest amount of sales of any other machine, was only eight per cent.

The official returns from which the gentleman pretends to get his information, show that there were sold last year forty-three thousand and fifty-three Singer Machines, while there were sold of the machine he represents only three thousand six hundred and thirty-eight. The simple increase in the sales of the Singer last year was over seven thousand machines, which is equal to twice the entire sales of the other machine.

We are of the opinion that the less the gentleman has to say about the per centage of increase of his machine hereafter the better.

The Singer Machine Company could publish the names of thousands who have used their machines for the last sixteen years; but they consider it a needless expense as well as very bad taste. They do not expect to sell their well tested and universally popular machine by misrepresenting others. Their machines are always open to inspection at their office, corner of Penn and St. Clair streets. Messrs. Straw & Morton, the agents, are gentlemen long and favorably known among us, and they only ask that their machines may be carefully examined before any other is purchased. They give as favorable terms as any.

The American Button Hole Overseaming and Sewing Machine does all kinds and varieties of sewing, and in addition makes the celebrated over-seaming stitch, embroiders on the edge, and works the most perfect button and eyelet hole that can be made. It is but one machine, combining and doing the work of many without even a change of thread, needle or tension, being at the same very simple, and within the capacity of all to manage with ease. It is especially adapted to shirt-making, all kinds of tailoring, dress and cloak making, and fine leather work. Give Chas. E. Balsley, the agent, a call at the salesroom, corner of Fifth and Market streets, second floor, over H. Richardson's & Co's jewelry store, and see this splendid machine. It has no equal in the world.
